

HOUSING UP ASSOCIATE BOARD

2018-2019 Membership Application

Thank you for your interest in joining Housing Up's Associate Board. Below you will find information on the Associate Board and Housing Up, as well as the membership application to serve as an Associate Board Member during the 2018-2019 term.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Associate Board supports Housing Up's mission and goals while building professional skills and growing as community leaders. Associate Board members contribute their talents and resources to cultivate a network of Housing Up supporters, volunteers and ambassadors.

VISION

Associate Board members become powerful advocates for affordable housing within Washington, DC and for Housing Up's mission of ending family homelessness. Members self-identify as leaders and seek ever-increasing responsibility and leadership opportunities in support of these goals. Over time, the Associate Board and its alumni become a strong foundation of community support that promotes Housing Up to potential donors and volunteers and supplies Housing Up with volunteer capacity, expert skills, and financial support.

ELIGIBILITY & RESPONSIBILITIES

Housing Up's Associate Board is open to young professionals aged 22-35.

The Associate Board supports the mission of Housing Up. The Associate Board does not have the same legal and fiduciary responsibilities as our Board of Directors. The Associate Board's input will be considered in organizational strategy, but members do not have voting power on the Board of Directors.

EXPECTATIONS

Associate Board members will:

- Attend an orientation session
- Attend at least four of six Associate Board meetings (some meetings may be conference calls)
- Attend at least three Associate Board events, volunteer activities (e.g., youth and adult tutoring, gardening program, career development training), Housing Up educational/policy events, and/or fundraising events (e.g., Housing Up's annual gala in the spring)
- Act as lead or co-lead organizer for at least one Associate Board project (e.g. volunteer event, communications project, fundraiser, etc.)
- Recruit friends and contacts to participate in events
- Meet new people, expand your personal network, and make a real difference for low-income and homeless families in your community

ABOUT HOUSING UP

Housing Up's mission is to provide affordable housing and comprehensive support services to homeless, at-risk and low-income families in the District of Columbia, so that they can transform their lives and interrupt their cycles of poverty. Housing Up currently serves close to 600 families in the District. Founded in 1990, Housing Up supports families' journeys to self-sufficiency by reducing barriers imposed by poverty and developing program participants' ability to gain and maintain stability and independence. Housing Up develops affordable housing and currently owns, co-owns or operates more than 300 units, including historic properties Fort View and Webster Gardens (2010), Weinberg Commons (2015), and Hedin House and Glenn Arms (2017).
