Williams Family Resource Center to provide information about the Campaign and the Rapid Rehousing program (RRH).

Chioma Nwadigo, a THC client with firsthand experience in THC's Rapid Rehousing program, captured the audience's attention with her powerful, earnest testimony about the support that THC has shown her and her autistic, 3-year-old son. Ms. Nwadigo stated that she would not be where she is without her case manager, Morgan Taylor. A transformed life stood at the microphone, inviting landlords to accept families like her own into stable housing.

THC Volunteer Appreciation

In the spring of 2013, two volunteers (Amina Akhtar and Jon Penniman) joined THC as part of their service learning course with George Washington University. Together, they have served countless hours working as tutors and garden volunteers at THC's Webster Gardens and Faircliff Plaza East locations. In this video they reflect on their experience serving with THC.
